APRIL 24, 2007 PD SEMINAR
SUCCESSFUL RELATIONSHIP MANAGEMENT ON PROJECTS
34TH PM PROFESSIONAL DAY
REGISTER NOW!

The 34th PM Professional Day will be held on Tuesday, April 24, 2007 at the Holiday Inn, Metrotown. Register now with Don Cuthill, PMP at cuthill@telus.net . Do not reply to this email; instead, send a new message to Don Cuthill.

Because relationship management is often more about the "art" than the "science" of project management, this seminar will make significant use of the workshop approach to encourage engagement. Come prepared to participate in what we are sure you will find to be an action-packed day!

Our agenda for the day will include these presentations and workshop sessions:

Carol Brien, PMP will facilitate a workshop on how best to establish your PROJECT STRUCTURE, GOALS & OUTCOMES

Doug Gregg, PMP will lead us through his presentation on PROJECT GOVERNANCE, intended to provide you with guidance on the proper infrastructure needed to sustain your project.

Jim Tucker, PMP will facilitate TEAM BUILDING: FORMING, STORMING, NORMING AND PERFORMING. In his workshop, Jim will revisit the themes of Bruce Tuckman's work and apply them to today's dynamic project environments.

George Hofsink, PMP will facilitate a workshop on SPONSORSHIP TRAINING STRATEGIES FOR PROJECT MANAGERS to aid you in establishing and building a successful relationship with your project sponsor.

Susan Bush, PMP. In her presentation, RELATIONSHIP MANAGEMENT

BEFORE, DURING AND AFTER A PROJECT she will take a look at some approaches to building a solid working relationship with your client, and how to work through relationship-based issues that may arise during the project lifecycle.

Chris Dennis, PMP will facilitate a workshop on STRENGTH BASED FACILITATION designed to offer you tips and techniques that every project manager needs to be a successful facilitator.

The seminar promises to be a lively day of workshops and presentations geared to providing the Project Manager with helpful tools and techniques for establishing, growing, and maintaining relationships before, during, and after your project.
