Subject: Education in Project Management: Call for Presenters, Workshop Leaders, and Team Members

The Society had added a full day professional development seminar on May 21, 2014 to the 2014 program. This is a call for Project Management Professionals to serve as presenters and workshop leaders for the technical program, and as members of the seminar management team. See below for a description of the topic "Education in Project Management".

No experience is necessary.

Contact Mike Dewing, PMP, by March 7, 2014 for more detail and to convey your interest in participating, at mdewing@mldholdings.com

Education in Project Management- Technical Program
-----

This full day seminar on May 21, 2014 will examine the current state of knowledge transfer and acquisition in the field of project management. The aim is to hear from educators, learners, and those in organizations that seek to develop the capabilities of their professional staff. Potential topics include knowledge management, training and teaching methods, self-instruction, and mentoring programs.

Volunteer presenters and workshop leaders should submit a title and a brief abstract to Mike Dewing by March 7, 2014.

Seminar Management Team Members

In addition to technical presenters and workshop leaders, these are the roles on the management team for the seminar. Additional volunteers are invited for all. One person may be asked to do two or more jobs:

- Technical Program
- Binder Co-ordination
- Facilities and Food
- Registration and Collection
- Evaluation Report

ABOUT THE SOCIETY - WEBSITE ADDRESS

*****
The Society of PM Professionals is a voluntary, democratic organization of PMP@s in the Greater Vancouver area, who are dedicated to the achievement of their common purposes in the profession through mutual support, co-operation, and collective effort.

There are more than 450 PMP@s in the Vancouver area who receive notices of Society events.

The Society holds at least three Professional Development Seminars in Vancouver each year.

The Professional Development Seminars feature technical presentations and workshop facilitation by PMP®s for the purpose of continuing professional development. The seminar is intended for PMP®s. However, a PMP® may invite guests who are committed to the advancement of the Profession. Practitioners who plan to become certified as PMP®s are welcome in particular.
